AN ELEGANT CONSERVATORY OF FLOWERS.

FLOWERS FROM MY GARDEN.
DRAWN AND COLORED FROM NATURE.
By LAURA G. MUNSON.

3 volume set. With Eighteen Illustrations.

Turkey Morocco. $15.
Cloth, $12.50. — 10.

"The most superb gift book of the season we have yet seen, is an elegant conservatory of many of the most beautiful flowers that blossomed in letter-press in the beautiful garden where it was written, in the winter of 1862."

"We almost fancied it as we turned over the leaves of this exquisite book, that we could detect the odor of Jessamine, Rose, Heliotrope, and Violets, truthfully are these flowers painted. Our readers must make haste if they would secure one of these gems, for the publishers advise some fainting, so that only 200 copies have been prepared for the year." — [In intelligence.]

"A magnificent gift book; a series of highly-colored flowers, the favorites of the garden, to which appropriate selections of poetry are added. Formed from the best of the most elegant efforts we have ever seen." — [Method.]

ANSON D. F. RANDOLPH, No. 622 Broadway.

WORCESTER'S GREAT ENGLISH DICTIONARY.

"Unquestionably much superior to any other general Dictionary of the language"—[G. F. Marsh, LL.D., author of "Lectures on the English Language"]

"We have never failed to get a right answer from it"—[Longfellow.]

FIFTH WEEK AND FIFTH EDITION.

GENERAL BUTLER IN NEW-ORLEANS.
A History of the Administration of the Department of the Gulf in the Year 1862, with an Account of the Capture of New-Orleans, and a Sketch of the Present Condition of the Southern Civil and Military.

BY JAMES PANTON.
Author of "Life and Times of Aaron Burr," "Life of Crown Bro. with Steel Portraits and Maps, Cloth, $2.
Half Cloth, $1.50.

Mr. Panton is the best of book-makers, a sure exponent and a true Springfieldian, and in this volume he has certainly the best of biographers in those respects; he dare to tell the whole truth about his hero, and has the power of clothing his narration with wonderful fascination. The New York Tribune says: "It is needless to say, to the whole world, that Mr. Panton has done a great service to history. It is, perhaps, the most readable book of the season."

The Boston Post pronounces it "absolutely the most interesting novel of the day. Only it is not a novel, it is the truth."

"Every page is full of interest," says The Commonwealth.

"A work of art, a history, a poem, a drama, a tragedy, a concrete evidence of the value of this book is offered in the fact that edition after edition is exhausted as fast as it comes from the press. Five editions have been called for in as many weeks. The press is now at work."
